The printed statement of the Sherman County State bank recently sent out makes a good showing. The balance sheet shows the sum of $75,838.97 resources and assets.

Register your name at Wittelschofer's for a chance to win a prize of a child's cloak, overcoat, or a men's fine suit pattern. You need not buy anything to have a chance as it is a free gift for Christmas. Plan of drawing with the people Christmas eve.

Red Brady, a tin-horn gambler, who tarried in Goodland several weeks finally hit the trail with another man's overcoat on his back. He was heard of in Denver, and upon inquiry it was found he had been in the ready made clothing business there, and was detained there on a similar complaint. The overcoat stolen here was the property of Clarence Skinner and was taken from his room in the Palace hotel. A complaint of burglary and larceny was sworn out here, but had to await the action of the authorities in Denver.

In a debate of the literary Saturday evening the subject of "Resolved that the Press has more Moral Influence with the Public than the Pulpit," was won handily by the affirmative. Rev. Jones, Rev. Goodrich, Edward Crawford and Miss Cora Smith were the contestants on the negative, while Prof. Loar and Ursula Swisher battled for the affirmative; even with such odds of four to two the pulpit "wasn't in it" with the press.

THE REPUBLIC is for town and people, and county in general. We try to get out a paper that will be a credit to the town and think that we are making a success of it. Our circulation is growing larger all the time, and therefore an advertisement in THE REPUBLIC is the best paying investment that the merchant can make. Try it and see if you aren't benefited by it.

The Goodland Chapter of Royal Arch Masons held an election Monday, December 14. The following officers were elected. J. G. Bourne, high priest; O. H. Smith, king; H. E. DonCarlos, scribe; C. P. Russell, treasurer; H. M. Haller, secretary. The installment of officers will be held on Monday, December 28.

Along with the buildings being moved from one place to another more advantageous, and the building that is going on, the city looks as might one that was being built, or trying to be built, almost all at once. Anyone coming to our city would be struck with the bustle and getherativeness of our citizens.

Register your name at Wittelschofer's for a chance to win a prize of a child's cloak, overcoat, or a men's fine suit pattern. You need not buy anything to have a chance as it is a free gift for Christmas—plan of drawing with the people Christmas eve.

In last week's REPUBLIC we suggested that the rainmakers make it rain or snow, but cautioned them about monkeying with a blizzard. They followed one suggestion about the rain, but neglected our caution about the blizzard. Let this be a warning.

Rev. Goodrich of Goodland, spent a few days in our town the first of the week, and preached two very able sermons at the church Monday and Tuesday evenings.—St Francis Rustler.

FOSTER LUMBER COMPANY.

Both air and water abound in microbes or germs of disease, ready to infect the debilitated system. To impart that strength and vigor necessary to resist the effect of these pernicious atoms, no tonic blood purifier equals Ayer's sarsaparilla.

"A chemical success and medical triumph," so speaks an eminent physician in reference to Ayer's cherry pectoral; and the eulogy was none too strong. No other medicine is so safe and efficacious in all diseases of the throat and lungs.
